

CITY OF LONG BEACH TENANT RELOCATION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Tenant Relocation Assistance Program is intended to assist very low- and low-income renter households permanently displaced from their housing due to demolition, condominium conversion, or rehabilitation required by code enforcement. This Program is governed by Chapter 21.60 of the Long Beach Municipal Code and is funded from monies collected by the City from the property owner.

You may qualify for relocation benefits if your gross annual household income does not exceed the income levels specified in the chart below. The income limits are effective as of March 20, 2007 and may change annually.

Household Size	Low-Income
1 person	$41,450
2 person	$47,350
3 person	$53,300
4 person	$59,200
5 person	$63,950
6 person	$68,650
7 person	$73,400
8 person	$78,150

If your income falls within the guidelines above, complete the attached application form, provide the required evidence of income documentation and submit all documents to:

NOTE: You are not eligible for relocation benefits if your gross annual household income exceeds the figures above, or if you were notified of the pending condo conversion when you moved into your unit.
