(All three parties in the photos above are heard on LBReport.com video, below).

Developer reps, including Cliff Ratkovitch (in photo at right).

As reported Oct. 7 by TheDistrictWeekly.com Senior Editor Dave Wielenga, the developer's advocate, Carl Kemp, had encouraged project supporters to attend (DW coverage, click here. LBReport.com is separately aware that emails from some project opponents were informally circulating.

LBReport.com arrived about 25 minutes into the meeting and began shooting video...and also solicited comments after the proceedings. We're told a number of project supporters (as well as opponents) spoke before we arrived; comments we heard sounded roughly split pro and con. [Individuals on each side estimated the percentages were higher in their respective camps.]

Among other civic figures we spotted (not on the video and not a complete list): Joe Sopo, Gordana Kajer, Ann Cantrell, Elizabeth Lambe, Melinda Cotton, Mike Ruele and Bill Orton.

3rd district Councilman Gary DeLong didn't attend...but his Council office Chief of Staff, Ann Cramer, was visible.

The DistrictWeekly.com's Wielenga filed coverage of the proceedings; to view it, click here.

(PT and Gazettes reporters were also present).
